

EXCITING RACE FOR SLIM CROWD ON CLOSING DAY

Hourless Finishes First in Nursery Handicap, but Is Disqualified.

Getaway day at Belmont Park yesterday afternoon produced the usual number of starting upsets for the eager crowd that turned out to bid the thoroughbreds farewell.

Hourless, August Belmont's brown two-year-old colt, was disqualified after finishing first in the Nursery Handicap, because he was found to be lame.

A Bad Bump.

Then things began to happen. Vivid and Kobi-Noor had bumped badly in the start, the latter being unable to get away. The race was almost a dead heat, but Kobi-Noor, who was the favorite, was disqualified because he was found to be lame.

Evans to Play

Over Wykagyl

Course To-day

Open and Amateur Title Holder

To Make an 18-Hole

Journey.

The Right Hon. Chick Evans will put both golf titles upon display this afternoon, when the open and amateur champion makes an 18-hole journey over the Wykagyl course.

In the original arrangement Chick Evans was to play a four-ball match with Reggie Lewis, Val Bergham and Henry J. Topping. As Lewis and Bergham were unable to appear, Evans was paired with Wykagyl.

The Wykagyl course, exceptionally well, should be able to give the double champ a healthy argument.

Wykagyl is a good test of golf. Jerry Travers came out of retirement last Sunday for a round there, and while playing good golf, Jerry had to be content with a 77. He had a queer round going out, where he had a 30 and a 2 and three 6s, the combination giving him 38. It will be interesting to see just how many strokes Chick can prune away from this round, as there are many Wykagyl golfers who are confident the champion will not break a 75.

The amateur record at Wykagyl is now 72, held jointly by Bergham and Travers. Evans will go after this mark, but only super golf will beat these figures, as there are any number of hard holes where one can easily run up extra strokes. Those who follow Evans this afternoon will have the prettiest iron player in the game to watch.

NEWSPAPER GOLFERS IN SIWANY TOURNEY

The annual championship of the Newspaper Golf Club opened at the Siwanoy Country Club yesterday afternoon. It was a scandalous manner in which the scribes of the press were to play, as a hundred was nothing at all for the pencil pushers.

In the morning a handicap qualifying round for the regular monthly tournament was held, the first sixteen low gross scores qualifying for the afternoon round.

Al Hedley won the medal in the morning with a low net of 80; W. W. Harris, club champion the last two years, was second, with 81, and A. B. Ross, third, with 82.

Eight of the original sixteen were eliminated in the second championship round of the afternoon. The concluding rounds will be played over this same course next Monday.

Seventy Football Players in Drill on Harvard Field

Coaches in Quandary as to Lineup for Game on September 23.

Cambridge, Mass., Sept. 11.—The Harvard football coaches separated the seventy squad players from the second team this afternoon, and a strenuous drill followed. Cooler weather made it possible to ask more of the players, and the coaches got down to business.

There were about thirty players in the drill today, including eighteen newcomers. Casey, the best of the freshmen backs last year, was welcomed, and so was Lovell, a heavy and aggressive lineman.

Harvard's first game comes a week from Saturday, and the coaches have not yet been able to figure out a scheme of a line-up. There has been no scrimmaging, but the players will probably start on Friday.

Several additional coaches were on hand to-day to aid in sizing up the material.

Bob Fisher worked with the middle line, and the coaches have not yet been able to figure out a scheme of a line-up. There has been no scrimmaging, but the players will probably start on Friday.

THE SPORTS LIGHT

The Dope.

The dope may be right or the dope may be wrong;

The dope may be short or the dope may be long;

The dope may be weak—or the dope may be strong.

But where would the game be without it?

Where would the game be with no one to slip

The essence and such of a clean, inside tip?

And what does it matter if prophecies rip,

Or fate should arise up to clout it?

Without the Old Dope, kindly put me aright,

On what would the fan feed from morning to night?

What other arrangement would look half as bright,

As he reached for THE page in his paper?

The box score is something—results are first rate.

But the main essence is, if you gather me straight,

To offer a tip that will start a debate,

Where statistics are ready to caper.

Who Blows Next?

In the three-cornered grapple for the National League peak the Robins were the first to blow, after amassing a five-game lead. By the time they had cracked sufficiently under the strain the esteemed Braves blew with an even more sonorous racket.

This left the uncracked Phillies in exclusive charge of the top. But by a score of 6-1, 6-3. The tall Yonkers youth had excellent control of singing style, and sent them into deep water with plenty of pace, but Binzen, rushing the net courageously, even though he was occasionally passed, finished off his points with sharp volleys

to the corners and timely smashes

of lob.

Donaldson had a stubborn grip on his hands against Irving W. Raymond,

the latter taking the first set after twenty games had been played. Then Donaldson began to place with unerring skill, forcing Raymond to keep on the run. Once he had found his opening

Donaldson forced his way to forecourt and from there smashed out the winning shot, 6-1, 6-4, 6-2.
